

Hirak Kumar Sinha Maha Patra

Designation: Assistant Professor (W. B. E. S.)

Department: History (HOD)

E-Mail: hiraksmp@gmail.com

Research Interests: Specialization:-Economic history of India, Tribal history

Academic Record:

B.A: Visva-Bharati University, 1998

M.A: Visva-Bharati University, 2000

B. Ed: Visva-Bharati University, 2001

Previous Academic Engagement(s)

- Assistant Teacher of History in Decha Gourangini High School. Birbhum. 2003

Selected Seminars/conferences;

- Delivered lectures as an invited speaker to the P.G. students of Burdwan University (Distance Mode) at Rampurhat College on History of Modern South East Asia. 2016- 17, 2017-18.
- Presented a paper on Handicrafts as an apparatuses of Empowerment of Rural Muslim Women: A case Study of Two villages in West Bengal in a national seminar on Financial Inclusion In India organized by Chandidas Mahavidyalaya, 6th-7th April 2017
- Presented a paper on “Exclusion of Santals; Problems and prospects” in a national seminar on Santals on the Margins; Challenges & opportunities organized by department of santali, Salboni Govt. College
- Presented a paper on The Problem and prospect of wood Tourism in West Bengal in a national seminar organized by THLH Mahavidyalay, Birbhum
- Attended UGC Sponsored International conference title Understanding Popular culture in 19th century India, organized by Department Of History, Visva Bharati.
- Attended an International symposium in PDC Girls College on Kazi Nazrul Islam.

Courses Taught : B.A (Hons), B.A (General).

