Annual Report of the NSS Unit (2019-2020)

Objectives: The NSS Unit of the college is committed to ensure of the well-being of the students and the community at large through:

- Sensitization drives relating to the age-old evils affecting the vulnerable sections in society.
- Initiatives which instil pride and belongingness to one's own nation.
- Campaigns to create awareness about issues of education and literacy, health and hygiene, and make the community adopt strategies to alleviate conditions, natural or man-made, causing health and safety hazards.
- Environmental consciousness drives towards building a sustainable future through community involvement in addressing issues of environmental degradation and ecological crises.

Initiatives:

- Due to the unfortunate outbreak of the Covid 19 pandemic in March 2020, where human survival was at stake, the NSS Unit could not realize its objectives.

Outcomes:

- No on-campus or beyond the campus extension or outreach activities could be conducted during this period due to lockdown, prolonged closure of educational institutions, physical distancing and restrictions on movement.
