Annual Report of the NSS Unit (2020-2021)

Objectives: The NSS Unit of the college is committed to ensure of the well-being of the students and the community at large through:

- Sensitization drives relating to structural social problems, age-old evils affecting the community and the vulnerable sections, campaigns to create awareness about education, literacy, health, hygiene, sanitation, cleanliness and drives to instil environmental consciousness.
- Due to the unfortunate outbreak of the Covid 19 pandemic in March 2020, where human survival was at stake, the NSS Unit could not realize its objectives. However the NSS Unit took upon itself the responsibility to host the district administration to disseminate the benefits of vaccination to the community through a vaccination camp.

Initiatives:

- Social Responsibility and Health, Hygiene, Sanitation and Cleanliness Initiative:
 - During this period the priority area of the NSS Unit was to organize a Covid 19 vaccination camp to prevent spread of the infection in the community in vicinity amounting to loss of valuable lives.

Target Groups/Areas: Students, local villagers, teaching and non-teaching staff of the college

Outcomes: The Covid 19 vaccination camp could not be organized during this period due to lockdown, prolonged closure of educational institutions, physical distancing and restrictions on movement.
