Sustainable Development: Understanding the Related Issues

ORGANISED BY: UGC-SEMINAR COMMITTEE

DATE: 14.09.18

TIME: 2.00 pm – 3.30 pm

VENUE: Seminar Hall, 2nd Floor

OBJECTIVE OF THE SEMINAR:

The seminar was organised with the objective of sensitizing the students about the concept of sustainable development, its necessity in the current scenario and its mode of implementation.

SPEAKER:

Mr. Hirak Kumar Sinha Mahapatra, Assistant Professor, Department of History, GGDC, Mangalkote.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SEMINAR:

The speaker began his talk by describing the story behind the adoption of ‘Sustainable Development’ as an agenda by all United Nations Member States in 2015. He then described how all the countries set an urgent call for actions with 17 Sustainable Development Goals and framed a global partnership to achieve these goals. He went on to elaborate the strategies to eradicate poverty and other deprivations, setting of indicators to implement and improve the standard of health and education, to give direction of the proper economic growth, plan to tackle the climate change issues, and work to preserve ocean and forest reserves. Going further, he described ‘Sustainable Development’ as a process of economic development without compromising the quality of surroundings and future stakeholders of this planet. He stressed how it emphasizes to minimize the environmental issues and maintain the economic needs without hampering the need of the future generations. He highlighted the main focus which has developed during the framework. It is to protect, restore and promote the sustainable use of the environment. So, this is an approach to meet the present needs without undermining the integrity of the planet. Eventually, he concluded by stating that the concept of ‘Sustainable Development’ creates better understanding about the use of renewable energy, conservation of natural species and balances the needs of economy with social well-being.
