DETAILED REPORT

- 1. Aims and Objectives of the Programme: Bonding between past and present students helps the institute to grow and develop academically. Hence the Alumni Group took the initiative to come forward and arrange a program on The Role of Dialogue in Drama as part of a cultural activity within the college involving full participation from the present batch of students.

The programme engaged young students of past and present to bond and develop relations with each other by

1. Showcasing their hidden talents
2. Boosting their self-confidence to perform in public
3. Emphasizing the importance of voice modulation and dialogue
4. To strengthen self-expression and public speaking.

2. Proceedings of the Programme (Description):
