opportunities by instilling confidence and courage.

6. Conclusion: Such programmes are very significant for students of a rural college like ours. Considering the positive response received from the students such initiatives will continue in the future.

A glimpse of the session on Bengali Communication

Mr. Keshab Chandra Saha using audio-visual reference to demonstrate that communication involves clearly transmitting a message and receiving the acknowledgement that the message has been received and understood by the intended audience. Effective Communication also means providing acknowledgement to others that ensures they feel heard and understood.

Another glimpse of the skill enhancement session

Mr. Keshab Chandra Saha explaining to the students how effective and efficient communication are different. Efficient communication is the ability to deliver a clear message in the shortest amount of time. Once the skill is mastered, the communicator will have successfully provided a clear and concise message to the intended audience.
