SEMINAR REPORT

ON

Leadership

ORGANISED BY: UGC-SEMINAR COMMITTEE

DATE: 30.04.22

TIME: 12.00 noon – 1.30 pm

VENUE: Seminar Hall, 2nd Floor

OBJECTIVE OF THE SEMINAR:

The seminar was aimed at nurturing the soft skills in students by making them aware of leadership skills and their importance in their day-to-day life as well as their professional life (in the future) when they will be serving managerial positions.

SPEAKER:

Dr. Suchismita Das, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, GGDC, Mangalkote

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SEMINAR:

The seminar on Leadership held at GGDC Mangalkote, featuring Dr. Suchismita Das, Assistant Professor of Sociology, was a transformative event for students aspiring to become leaders in their communities. The speaker used her perspectives on societal dynamics, and delved into the essence of leadership and its significance in rural contexts.

The seminar commenced with the speaker elucidating the multifaceted nature of leadership, emphasizing that it transcends mere authority and encompasses traits such as empathy, communication, and adaptability. She illustrated this by citing examples from both historical and contemporary rural settings, demonstrating how effective leadership has been pivotal in driving positive change. One of the focal points of the speaker's discourse was the idea that leadership is not confined to formal positions of power but can emerge from within any individual willing to take initiative and inspire others. Drawing from her own experiences working with rural communities, she highlighted the importance of grassroots leadership in addressing local challenges and fostering development. Throughout the seminar, the speaker emphasized the role of education in nurturing future leaders. She encouraged students to actively engage in extracurricular activities, community service, and self-reflection to hone their leadership skills. Moreover, she stressed the need for continuous learning and self-improvement, underscoring that leadership is a journey of growth and development. The interactive nature of the seminar allowed students to actively part sharing their own perspectives and aspirations regarding leadership roles in their communities.

LEADERSHIP

on 30TH APRIL, 2022

AT: 12.00 NOON

Venue: Seminar Hall, 2nd Floor

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME:

Leadership is a soft skill which some people are born with while others can acquire through perseverance and practice. This skill is required in every field, be it domestic or professional. However, leadership has often been confused with dictatorship which is wrong. A true leader is one who sets examples for others to follow. Making the students aware of these values can help in making them responsible citizens of the country. The programme aims to discuss these aspects of leadership and lot more.
